

Why does the left click menu of the system tray icon contain no input methods?

Why does the left click menu of the system tray icon contain no input methods?

No scim backend process is running. You can try this command in a console under X:

```
scim -d
```

This is probably caused by misconfiguration of scim/skim: please follow the procedures described in scim or the configure section of your favorite distribute.