

scim-pinyin 0.5.90 has been released.

Author: James Su<james.su@gmail.com>

It's the first development version towards the next stable 0.6.0 branch.

Shuang PIn support has been implemented along with a new Quan Pin parser and some bugfixes. You could download the source tarball from <http://sf.net/projects/scim>. Please report any bugreports on our bugzilla system (on sf.net) or maillists. Suggestions are also welcome.
