

Why are blank squares rather than candidates displayed in skim input window?

Why are blank squares rather than candidates displayed in skim input window?

If you see dotted blank squares in the lookup (candidates) table of skim, that means your system (Qt) can not find a font which contains the requested characters. Please try to install all related font packages in your distro.