

VOTE time again for SCIM project

Author: Cougar Liu<liucougar@scim-im.org>

Thanks for our supporters, SCIM successfully went through the nomination phase of the 2006 SourceForge.net Community Choice Awards. Now voting for the final winners is open. Please continue to support us by VOTING SCIM in this event. (Voting will end in March 23rd.) Click the "Read More..." link for more details.

SCIM project successfully passed the first nomination phase, and is seated as the fifth candidates in the final list of desktop applications, which is pretty good compared to its 12th activity ranking, thanks goes to all those supporters who voted for us :)

Now please vote SCIM again in this second phase for your favorite desktop application before March 23rd.

Thanks for your support.
